

VOYAGE INTO MASCULINE SOUL

Building Brotherhood and Community: Antidote to Isolation and Shame

A Men's Retreat with Tom McGee and Richard Palmer

"The biggest threat facing middle-age men isn't smoking or obesity. It's loneliness." Billy Baker, Boson Globe, March 9, 2017

There are dark forces that chew on our shame when we are in isolation. These forces carry a voice that whispers "Want nothing, risk nothing, and never, ever enter the circle."

The antidote to isolation is the sacredness of life, experienced within community.

Please join us for this restorative weekend, during which we will face demons of the dark forces and bolster our experience of brotherhood and community.

Fri, Apr 13 through Sun, Apr 15 in Camp Whittier, Santa Barbara

RETREAT FEE: $575
